

Saint Patrick's Award 2022

APPLICATION

The Saint Patrick's Award is a special recognition and scholarship awarded each year by the College of Engineering, Architecture, and Technology (CEAT) Student Council. It honors a few of the top graduating students for their accomplishments in the areas of leadership, academics, and contributions to Oklahoma State University, CEAT, and the community. Recipients will be selected on the basis of an application and interview process conducted by a panel consisting of faculty, administration, and students.

Eligibility

- Applicants must be students in CEAT
- Applicants must be graduating with their undergraduate degrees from CEAT in the 2021-2022 calendar year (May or December)

Important Dates

- Applicants should complete the following application, along with an unofficial transcript, and submit it to okstateceatstuco@gmail.com by Monday, March 21st at 5 PM
- Late applications will not be accepted
- Interviews will be conducted on Wednesday, March 25th
- Recipients will be recognized at the CEAT Award Banquet [date TBD] and applicants should make every effort to attend
